SYDNEY FILM FESTIVAL

PATRON PROGRAM

Sydney Film Festival brings innovative, groundbreaking and international hits to film lovers each year. I work with a dedicated team who are equally passionate about film and our goal is to deliver a Festival that challenges and delights our audience and provides a forum to engage with friends and strangers alike to discuss, debate and celebrate film.

To enrich our program and achieve ongoing success we need your help. By making an investment in Australian film culture you will ensure that others get to experience the wonder of cinema, just like you and I. Your support will introduce new and more diverse audiences to the power of film and preserve the Festival for generations to come. Together we will nurture emerging Australian film talent to share their stories and we will bring international guests to our shores to inspire our audience.

As a patron I look forward to sharing my world of cinema with you; insights into my global search for films, top picks for the Festival and the pleasure of meeting filmmakers from around the world.

Join me to experience Sydney Film Festival and contribute to our success.
